The National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) is regulated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Communities with a mapped floodplain are required by the Commonwealth of PA to participate in the NFIP, which requires municipalities to adopt and enforce a floodplain ordinance, in exchange for flood insurance for their residents.